2. Updates:
 - a. Youth Summit – May 2nd! Save the date. Currently in the planning process but will be reaching out to schools and coalition to recruit students to attend and to get volunteers to help the day of.
 - b. TOPPC Youth Committee – TOPPC Youth have chosen their committees to work in and have started some projects. Youth Summit group is working to secure their speakers and plan their youth led activities. Mental Health Groups is looking to host a self-care challenge in an upcoming month. Substance Abuse group created flyers about getting help for a substance abuse problem. This was distributed to all the high schools. They are next planning an educational presentation for middle school students on substance abuse issues. The Sexual Health group is working to create a presentation to educate the general public on what it means to have consent and what is sexual harassment.
3. Strategic Planning with Kori! – Kori led us through a brainstorm of strategies for our prioritized substances. We generated a long list of ideas that will be put into a survey and sent out to the coalition to vote on what they think is most important for the coalition to work on.
4. Next Meeting: Watch for a OL Survey to determine new meeting times!
